"NOTHING REFUSED" IN LETTER SENT

Taft Letters Never Meant for Publication Say Advisers of the President.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 26.—President Wilson has written a letter to Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, dealing with a resolution recently adopted by the Senate.

In making this announcement today White House officials said the letter was "not a refusal of anything."

The resolution referred to in the letter was supposed to be that of the committee asking for all documents used by the American delegates at the peace conference.

President Wilson's advisers said today that after studying letters written by former President Taft to Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee, and to several senators regarding reservation to the peace treaty, that the President has concluded that Mr. Taft did not write for publication.

They said the President believed Mr. Taft was making an honest effort to bring about a settlement of the controversy and that he had no idea that what he wrote would be published at this time.

Some of the President's advisers deprecated the action of some senators who have visited the White House and placed their own interpretations in statements upon what the President had said.

CALL PROSECUTORS OF EVERY COUNTY

Sweeping Investigation will be Carried Into Every County in Ohio.

Columbus, O., July 26.—Sweeping investigations of food prices in every county in Ohio is requested in a communication sent by Governor James M. Cox today to State Attorney General John G. Price. Grand jury investigations, Governor Cox states, should be begun in some cases without delay. The letter recommends the Attorney General take immediate action.

Attorney General Price, who had several discussions with the Governor before the latter's letter was sent, declares he will set every facility of his office at the disposal of the chief executive and county prosecutors.

He has called a meeting of prosecutors for two o'clock next Wednesday afternoon in the chamber of the House.

In case there is lack of co-operation in the counties the chief executive will grant authority for the institution of an inquiry by the grand jury under state auspices.

Governor Cox places the blame for exorbitant prices on "certain unlawful practices in the traffic in food stuffs."

He places direct responsibility on policies of cold storage institutions, stating that these institutions have kept food in storage for the purpose of preserving prices.

The fuel situation is also touched upon by the Governor, who states there is prospect that fuel prices so high that "no man can justify them" and indicates that if conspiracy on the part of dealers is revealed, stringent measures should be put into force.

HAVE YOU READ?

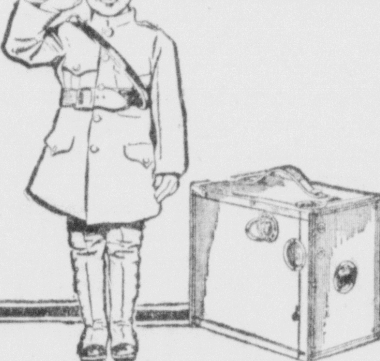

Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson: A story of piracy and concealed treasure, with the characters nearly all of a sinister kind. The beautiful tropic scenery forms a striking contrast to the savagery of the action. The plot is laid in the middle of the 19th century.

Stevenson's father, grandfather and his uncles were celebrated builders of lighthouses, and perhaps the romance connected with building these mighty towers had much to do with kindling the love of romance in Stevenson himself, which resulted in his writing some of the finest romantic stories which were published in the latter half of the 19th century.

Stevenson was a frail child and suffered from ill-health all his life, so it is wonderful to think that he was able during his short life and wracked by illness so often, to write so many fine stories, essays, and poems, and every page he wrote has a charm all his own, for he never shirked a single sentence.

All Stevenson's works are to be found at the Public Library.

Mr. Taft's Plan

Former President William H. Taft has proposed a plan by which the Senate may incorporate in its ratification of the League of Nations proposals, some interpretative clauses which will carry into the record—and in fact, by that act, read into the treaty and into the league of nations pact—the understanding of the Senate, upon some of the clauses, which, it is urged, are susceptible of a different construction from that urged by the league of nations advocates.

Mr. Taft's plan seems to furnish a splendid vehicle for the Senate to avoid public disapproval, which a rejection of the treaty would carry with it, claim a share of the glory for having helped frame the treaty and the league pact and at the same time "have its way" in taking a dig at the President.

The plan suggested by Mr. Taft would certainly result in no harm and might save misunderstandings in the future.

The six stipulations, suggested by Mr. Taft, are:

1. That upon two years' notice the United States could cease to be a member of the league without having the league pass upon whether she had fulfilled all her obligations under the covenant.
2. That self-governing colonies and dominions could not be represented on the League Council at the same time with the mother government, or be included in any of those clauses where the parties to the dispute are excluded from its settlement.
3. That the functioning of council under Article 10 shall be advisory only and that each member shall be left free to determine questions of war in its own way, the decision of the United States resting with Congress.
4. That differences between the nations regarding immigration, the tariff and other domestic questions shall not be left to the league for settlement.
5. That the Monroe Doctrine is to be reserved for administration by the United States.
6. That the United States reserves the right to withdraw unconditionally at the end of ten years, or at least to terminate then her obligations under Article 10.

The recalcitrant republican senators claim to fear that there is, in Mr. Taft's suggestions, a scheme to entrap them into taking action which will only result in strengthening President Wilson and in no political benefit to them.

The people hope that the suggestions of Mr. Taft for bringing the Senate and the President into agreement on the peace treaty, will be productive of results. After all is said and done, the evidence accumulates, in proof of the suspicion, that the difference is a personal one rather than one which springs from the subject itself.

Mr. Taft's record of public service, his war work activity does not warrant any fear that he is now acting as a "tricky politician." Mr. Taft knows his big patriotic duty—certainly there is abundant proof of that and certainly he will not now, in the gravest moment of the whole long war period, stoop to a political trick regarding the ratification of the treaty.

We prefer to believe that Mr. Taft is acting from honest, patriotic conviction in the discharge of a duty and we do not believe that the people will accept kindly any attempt by the Senate to reject his suggestions on a charge of insincerity.

Neither do we believe that President Wilson would be justified in adhering to the "pound of flesh" principle in urging the treaty ratification.

No Real Menace

Quite naturally there is a great deal of discussion about the menace of a food trust—as some writers express it, the approaching day when we must all eat out of the hand of the Chicago packers.

There has been suspicion, some scattering comment and some warning that the growing power of the Chicago packers was assuming the proportions of a menace, but, for years, the controversy has dragged on with no definite action taken, with the people in the dark as to how much of truth and how much of fiction there was in the startling rumors and just what should be done to insure against an intolerable condition becoming fastened upon us.

In the meantime the packers have grown and prospered enormously. The war came on in Europe and we were called upon to supply Europe with meat and food and almost every other thing that human beings need, everybody was busy making money and attending to his own business—the packers and everyone else. We were too busy and too prosperous to insist that the rumors about the packers be investigated and proved true or refuted. The packers were busy too it seems. How busy were they and along what lines did they operate and how far have they gone?

The report of the Federal Trades Commission has added fresh fuel to the smoldering flame and, it is to be hoped, that we can cut short the discussion, the gloomy forebodings and the prophecies and get the whole matter settled finally.

We fear no domination by the packers or any other band of individuals, but we do fear delay of officials to do what should be done at once.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE RED GODS CALL

So for one the wet sail arching through the rainbow round the bow,
And for one the creak of snow shoes on the crust;
And for one the lakeside lilies where the bull moose waits the cow,
And for one the mule train coughing in the rust.

Who hath smelt wood smoke at twilight? Who hath heard the birch log burning?

Who is quick to read the noises of the night?
Let him follow with the others, for the Young Men's feet are turning
To the camps of proved desire and known delight!

Do you know the blackened timber—do you know that racing stream
With the raw, right-angle log jam at the end;
And the bar of sun-warmed shingle where a man may bask and dream
To the click of the shod canoe poles round the bend?

It is there that we are going with our rods and reels and traces,
To a silent, smoky Indian that we know—
To a couch of new-pulled hemlock, with the starlight on our faces,
For the Red Gods call us out and we must go!

—Rudyard Kipling.

ATHLETICS READY FOR THE ALL-STARS

With the signing up of a new center fielder Manager Noon of the Athletics now feels that the team is strongly fortified for the attack of the Springfield All-Stars on Sunday.

Davis, the new man on the roster, was a member of the Wilmington team until a few weeks ago, and the fans know that he covers the middle garden for the Clintons a style that cannot be beaten.

Manager Collopy of the All-Stars writes that his team will make the trip by auto and that his players will be in this city by the noon hour.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The large ball room of the Dahl-Campbell Club quarters has staged no prettier nor more delightful affair than the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Holloway in honor of their niece, Marion Sands and Gus Albrecht, of Louisville, Ky., who are guests at their home.

Assembled were twenty-five couples of the Junior set and the atmosphere pulsed with youth and gaiety, while the scene presented a rose bud garden of pretty girls in dainty summer frocks, none lovelier than the attractive young honor guest wearing a beautiful gown of peach voile, the exquisite shade matched in her corsage bouquet of Ward roses.

RELIABILITY - THE - ACCOMMODATION
FAYETTE COUNTY BANK
STRENGTH - WASHINGTON, C. H. OHIO - SERVICE

From half past eight until twelve o'clock the light fantastic was merrily tripped to splendid music furnished by Mr. James Whelpley, expert pianist, and trap drums. The program included all the most popular dances, the rhythm and pep of the music adding inspiration.

A refreshing summer collation was served between dances Mrs. Holloway was assisted in the hospitalities by her sister Mrs. J. E. Sands, of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. H. R. Rodecker.

Misses Marion and Edith Wells, of Toledo, were out of town guests.

The local W. C. T. U. held its July meeting Friday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, with several visitors present in addition to a goodly number of members.

During the short business session, several members paid their Jubilee pledges for the cause of World-wide Prohibition. The president desires a pledge shall be paid by Sept. 1st. The topic was Suffrage, with Mrs. Frank Kennedy Franchise Supt. presiding. After introductory remarks, she presented Miss Edith Gardner, who gave a very instructive talk on Suffrage. She said that advising the W. C. T. U. on this subject, was like children giving advice to their mothers. She stated that in Australia, where women have the ballot, the death rate is the lowest in the world due to health laws the women have enacted.

In states with equal suffrage, illiteracy has decreased from eight and one tenth per cent to three and two tents percent. She noted many reforms women have been able to secure by the use of the ballot, and proved by her argument, that women will use the ballot for the betterment of their homes and humanity.

Mrs. George Hitchcock explained very clearly the Hughes Act, or Health Bill and the way women may be able to assist in its enforcement.

The meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction.

The dinner given Thursday noon by Mrs. Charles A. Stafford and daughter, Miss Annette was very informal, but of out of the ordinary pleasure, in that the guests were close friends, and spent a most enjoyable day together recalling former associations.

Mrs. William Devalon, daughter Mabel, of Muskogee, Okla., Mrs. William Diamond, of Huntington, Ind., Mrs. J. E. Mark, Mrs. George Conner, daughter Helen and son Dudley were guests.

Miss Margaret McDonald charmingly entertained Friday with an informal luncheon in compliment to Miss Jean Fitzgerald of Columbus.

The table was lovely with maderia luncheon set, and black eyed susans in crystal basket in the center. Black eyed Susan place cards, and little yellow baskets filled with nuts marked each plate. The yellow color scheme was also carried out in the delicious four courses served.

The guests were confined to members of the "Sour Pickles."

The Washington C. H. Daughters of the American Revolution has sent in to the Columbus Baby Camp a donation of fifty dollars.

A number of local women not members of the chapter contributed to the sum total.

The popularity of the Friday night band concert and other attractions of Roger's park, above Bloomingburg continues to grow and Washington folk are motoring out in increasing numbers.

A very jolly party, including the young women of the Thursday Bridge luncheon Club, their husbands and children, drove out Friday evening taking a picnic supper for which tables are provided and remaining for the concert and picture show.

After a jolly twelve days' camp, the party near Rock Mills, including Misses Elizabeth Westerfield of New Orleans, La., Portia, Laura, Elizabeth and Roma Brownell, Florence Bliss, Dorothy Dick, Charlene Sharp, Mary and Jane Durant, Helen Karney, Mabel Suckie and Virginia Elites with Miss Carrie Willis chaperone, broke camp, Saturday morning, and returned to their homes in this city.

The girls had their tents pitched in a very picturesque spot in a ravine and swimming, hiking and canoeing added zest to the regular camp routine.

Miss Ruth Tanquary was with the campers the early part of the outing. The girls entertained quite a number of visitors from town during their outing.

One of the prettiest of the season's children's parties was given by Mrs. L. C. Cummin, of Hyde Park, Cincinnati, in honor of the fifth birthday of her little daughter, Mildred Corinne. It was at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Garner, with whom Mrs. Cummin and daughter are spending the summer.

The afternoon was happily spent in music and games and at four o'clock the little tots grouped around a beautifully decorated table. Pink and blue ribbons formed a canopy effect from the chandelier to each cover and sweet peas the centerpiece. Novelty boxes of candy were the favors.

The marriage of Miss Leona Rhodes and Mr. Howard L. Moles which occurred Saturday morning, is attended by no small interest on the part of the bride's many friends in this city, many of whom are also privileged in having the bride-groom's acquaintance.

Rev. G. E. Grove performed the ceremony at his home, the young couple being attended by the bride's sister, Miss Helen Rhodes and Mr. Herbert Wilson.

Immediately after Mr. and Mrs. Moles went at once to Springfield, where they will reside and have all in readiness a costly furnished home at 503 W. Mulberry street.

Mr. Moles, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moles, of Urbana, before entering military service from which he recently received his discharge, was Department Superintendent of a Rubber Company in Springfield which position he now resumes.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rhodes, is a beautiful girl of the pure blonde type, possessing a very attractive personality. For four years she was at the head of Craig Brother's notion department and the best wishes of numerous business acquaintances are warmly added to those of personal friends, sincerely regretting the removal to a new home. She was handsomely attired in a navy blue serge suit, with georgette waist and maline hat of the same shade. She wore a sorsage bouquet of pink roses.

The maid, who is the same fair type as her sister, also wore a dark blue costume.

There was a most enjoyable dance at the Eagle's Hall Friday evening with a number of people from Wilmington and Chillicothe attending.

Young's string orchestra, of Columbus furnished excellent music, their Fox trots a specialty.

Arnold Shoop was committee chairman.

TOURING BUREAU BRANCH PLANNED FOR THIS CITY

Fayette County Automobile Club Active and Office Will be Opened Soon.

Markers Are Being Placed Throughout County For Aid to Motorists.

Howard C. Allen, secretary of the Fayette County Automobile Club, has been notified by the State Highway Commissioner Clinton Cowen, that the Highway Commission has created a Touring Bureau for the purpose of furnishing information to the general public and to the Motor Transport Corps of the United States Army.

This information will cover the current condition of all the various main routes in the state.

As a result of this action the Fayette County Auto Club, within the next few days, will open an office which will form a branch of the Touring Bureau and will furnish this information to the public.

It is thought that this service will be of great assistance to the motoring public in view of the fact that a person will be employed who will advise as to the condition of the roads, the best routes, detours and closed roads.

The work of marking the roads with the proper numbers, as designated by the State Highway Commissioner, is going forward rapidly in this county and it is announced that standard danger signs, which are being furnished by the state, will in a short time be properly placed over the county. The signs will show the railroad crossings, sharp and dangerous curves, and school districts.

It is understood that several other important issues are being considered by the club but no definite announcement concerning them has been made.

TAX COLLECTION TOTALS $162,245

There is every indication that the rush at the county treasurer's office will increase rapidly until the grand final Jan. on Tuesday of next week—stock sales day—the closing day.

At the close of business Thursday evening the amount of taxes collected had reached $162,245.59. The collection Thursday total $4,629.08.

The CHENEY PHONOGRAPH

Hear the Cheney Before
You Buy

COME and listen—and then compare! You will gauge all phonographs by a new standard after you have heard the Cheney.

For the Cheney utilizes new principles in acoustic science—in part it employs the basic idea of the pipe organ, modified by a tone amplification system which is far superior to the old "megaphone" method.

You hear no "needle scratch," no unmusical sounds—only the pure tones which the artist put into the record. The fidelity of the reproduction is astonishing.

The distinctive features which give the Cheney such tonal superiority are patented, and found only in the Cheney.

Cheney Cabinets are masterpieces of period design—they fittingly enshrine the superior Cheney tonal system.

BROOKS DEFEATS CARNIVAL CHAMP. IN SHORT ORDER

In a finished wrestling match between Ted Zimmermann, and the wrestler who is traveling with the carnival in this city and who claims to be champion of San Francisco, and William Brooks, local wrestler, Brooks won two of the falls in class style and defeated the challenger at the carnival grounds Friday night.

The first fall was of the longest duration and was won by Brooks in 15 minutes and 4 seconds with an arm lock.

In the second session, Zimmermann tried for a toe hold and at the end of five minutes he succeeded in applying one which brought the required results and Brooks was forced to surrender the fall.

When the wrestlers went to the mat for the third and deciding fall the local man made short work of the bout by the same method in which he was forced to give up the second fall. It required just three minutes for the carnival man to state to the referee that he could call it off.

In these matches Brooks has appeared to be a wrestler of real talent and his manner of going after an opponent has suggested a man of experience.

The weight of both men was 157 pounds.

Deputy Sheriff C. W. Perry refereed the bout and acquitted himself with honor.
